

Social Justice Fair Guide 2022

Asian Cultural Student Association- Elizabethtown College

The Asian Cultural Student Association aims to provide a safe space, to advocate, and to educate for Asian and Asian American students as well as other students who would like to learn more about Asian culture. The club benefits the campus community by offering educational opportunities through events on campus as well as off campus learning trips to supplement learning.

Contact: asianculturalstudentassociation@etown.edu

Center for Community and Civic Engagement (CCCE)

The Center for Community and Civic Engagement (CCCE) provides opportunities for students, faculty, and staff to engage and deepen their involvement in service in local, national, and international contexts. Reciprocal relationships with local organizations are the foundation of these efforts. Based on our belief that learning is most noble when used to benefit others the Center for Community and Civic Engagement fosters opportunities for meaningful and reciprocal relationships between Elizabethtown College and the community.

Contact: civicengagement@etown.edu , 717-361-3025, BSC 247

Center for Global Understanding & Peacemaking (CGUP)

The Center for Global Understanding and Peacemaking (CGUP) develops and facilitates programs advancing global understanding, international engagement, and non-violent conflict transformation. It creates opportunities for students, faculty and staff to develop a sense of responsibility as citizens of the world who are knowledgeable about global issues, empathetic toward people of other cultures and nationalities, and committed to the values of peace, human dignity and social justice.

Contact: cgup@etown.edu; Dr. Shannon Haley-Mize, Interim Director, mizes@etown.edu, N144, 717-367-3702

Class of 2024 Senate- Elizabethtown College

The purpose of Student Senate is to advocate for student rights on campus, and to bring student voices and ideas into the process of improving the Elizabethtown College campus and community.

Contact: classof2024@etown.edu, BSC 244

Counseling Services at Elizabethtown College

Counseling Services provides a broad range of counseling and mental health support services that facilitate our students' personal, social, and academic development. Our licensed mental health professionals provide short term individual counseling, group counseling, crisis intervention, consultation, and psychiatric services to currently enrolled students for no additional charge. Counseling services are provided in a confidential and identity affirming environment to help students address a variety of mental health, situational, and developmental concerns.

Contact: 717-361-1405, BSC 216

Disability Services at Elizabethtown College

Elizabethtown College has a long-standing tradition fostering the values of peace, non-violence, human dignity, and social justice. Aligning our practices with these core values, the Office of Disability Services is committed to providing equal access for students to all courses, programs, services, and activities. Part of the Center for Student Success, we offer resources, tools, and support to help students become responsible decision-makers and knowledgeable self-advocates as they pursue their academic and professional goals. In addition, we are committed to working with the entire campus community to cultivate an awareness of an inclusive educational environment.

Contact: disabilityservices@etown.edu; Lynne Davies, Director 717-361-1227, daviesl@etown.edu

Domestic Violence Services of Lancaster County

DVSLC provides advocacy, which recognizes that victims of domestic violence, primarily women, are empowered to achieve their goals in accordance with their individual choices and needs. DVSLC believes that the skills and experience of staff and volunteers, along with community support, are crucial to its mission. DVSLC's resources and services strive to provide program participants, staff and volunteers maximum opportunities for personal growth. DVSLC works to achieve social justice by educating and mobilizing the community to create an environment that does not tolerate domestic violence.

Contact: (717) 299-9677

Elizabethtown Police Department & Colleagues

The Elizabethtown Police Department is committed to providing the highest quality of police services by empowering our members and the community to work in partnership with the goal of improving the quality of life within Elizabethtown Borough, while at the same time maintaining respect for individual rights and human dignity.

Contact: etownpd@etownpolice.org , (717) 367-6540

Etown Employee Wellness

The Elizabethtown College Employee Wellness Team promotes a work site culture that supports healthy lifestyle choices by valuing individual health and creating a supportive community to enhance the College's vision of the optimal learning environment.

Contact: ewt@etown.edu

Gender-Sexuality Alliance (GSA)- Elizabethtown College

GSA's purpose is to build a support group for members of the LGBTQ+ community on campus. This is done through various events aimed at building connections between members and ensuring that those members have support if needed in aspects pertaining to LGBTQ+ resources or academics. There is an advocacy side to GSA too, where the club advocates to advance LGBTQ+ belonging and equity on campus.

Contact: gsa@etown.edu

Health Promotion/ Student Wellness Advocacy Group

Elizabethtown College Student Wellness Advocacy Group (SWAG) are students who serve the College community by promoting awareness of options and services for a healthier lifestyle. We also support and encourage positive, informed choices, believing that a healthier lifestyle now will promote future well-being.

Contact: studentwellness@etown.edu

Hillel- Elizabethtown College

Hillel is the Jewish club on campus and we provide opportunities for all students on campus to learn about Jewish holidays and culture through attending services, and events on campus.

Contact: Hillel@etown.edu

Housing and Residence Life- Elizabethtown College

To authentically empower growth and accountability through experiences that cultivate purposeful community development and change.

Contact: reslife@etown.edu; Jenn Azevedo, Director azevedoj@etown.edu, BSC 255

It's On Us- Elizabethtown College Chapter

The purpose of It's On Us Etown is to raise awareness about sexual assault on our campus and prevent it, as well as educating students about resources they have to report and intervene in sexual assault. This is done through bi-weekly meetings and planning events every month, whether serious or light-hearted. The club provides members with a unique opportunity to develop skills in leadership, program planning, advertising, and educating their fellow students. The club benefits the community by offering educational activities for students through community service.

Contact: itsonus@etown.edu

Latinx Hispanic Student Union- Elizabethtown College

The Latinx/Hispanic Student Union aims to strengthen the relationships and cultural development of Latinx/Hispanic students on campus, as well as other students who would like to learn more about the Latinx/Hispanic culture.

Contact: latinxhispanicsu@etown.edu

LGH Sycamore Square, Student Health Nurse

Elizabethtown College has a new collaboration with Penn Medicine Lancaster General Health to provide comprehensive clinical health services for our students.

Contact: Kati Frey, RN 717-588-1059

Milagro House

Milagro House provides education, housing and support services for women and their children who would otherwise be experiencing homelessness. Our vision is to prepare the women and children who come through our doors with the skills they need to break the cycle of homelessness and poverty and move from dependency to self-sufficiency.

Contact: 717-509-1401

NAACP- Elizabethtown College Chapter

The mission of the Elizabethtown College's National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) chapter/club is to inform the campus community about issues impacting African Americans and People of Color (POC); to advocate for marginalized and underrepresented students by advancing the economic, educational, social and political status of these groups/communities; and to develop the next generation of civil rights and community leaders while following the mission given to us by the NAACP.

Contact: naacp@etown.edu

Office of Diversity, Equity, and Belonging- Elizabethtown College

The Office of Diversity, Equity, and Belonging supports students with historically marginalized identities, educates the community about and celebrates identity, and addresses structural inequity. Working with students, faculty, staff and the greater community, this area promotes a culture prioritizing individual worth and interconnectedness. Our mission is realized through a number of events and activities exploring topics including but not limited to race/ethnicity, gender and gender identity, sexual orientation, age, socioeconomic status, ability status, national origin and religion.

Contact: Nichole Gonzalez, Executive Director, 717-361-1179, gonzaleznichole@etown.edu ,
BSC 210

Office of Student Activities (OSA)- Elizabethtown College

The Office of Student Activities (OSA) is the student-run central programming organization on campus. OSA is responsible for planning and executing a wide variety of events, both entertaining and educational, for the entire campus.

Contact: osa@etown.edu

Office of Title IX- Elizabethtown College

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) and its implementing regulations prohibit sex discrimination in educational programs and activities operated by recipients of Federal financial assistance. This prohibition encompasses discrimination based on a student's gender identity, including discrimination based on a student's transgender status. Elizabethtown College is committed to providing a learning, working, and living environment that promotes personal integrity, civility, and mutual respect in an environment free of sex discrimination and sexual misconduct.

Contact: Gabrielle Reed, Deputy Title IX Coordinator, reedg@etown.edu, 717-361-3727

PSECU

PSECU, also known as the Pennsylvania State Employees Credit Union has partnered with Elizabethtown College to provide comprehensive banking services and financial education to the campus community since 2006.

Contact: <https://www.psecu.com/students>

School of Graduate and Professional Studies- Elizabethtown College

We enrich learner's lives through transformative lifelong learning experiences that foster a sense of belonging, provides intellectual growth, and empower individuals to serve the community.

Contact: 717-361-1411, sgps@etown.edu

Student's Rights and Responsibilities- Elizabethtown College

The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities upholds practices of a facilitative and fair nature, respecting individual rights while balancing these with community integrity, honesty, civility and safety. We hold the primary function in investigating and resolving alleged incidents of student misconduct. Further, our practitioners are dedicated to enriching the social learning experiences of students. We take pride in educating the community about balancing student and institutional rights and responsibilities.

Contact: Jenn Crowder, Associate Dean of Students crowderj@etown.edu , (717) 361-474

Supreme Network Global

Our mission is to create social, financial, and self-empowerment opportunities for our members and affiliates through education, entrepreneurship and mentorship to foster international unity.

Contact: <https://supremenetwork.org/pages/contact>

Unto

At Unto, we express the kindness of Jesus in the toughest places on earth by relieving suffering, restoring dignity, and revealing hope through humanitarian aid.

Contact: info@unto.com , 717-285-4220

Water Street Mission

Our mission is to advance the kingdom of God through the gospel of Jesus Christ and to do missionary, relief and rescue work of all kinds.

Contact: (717) 393-7709, contact@wsm.org

YWCA of Lancaster

YWCA Lancaster is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting peace, justice, freedom, and dignity for all.

Contact: ywca@ywcalancaster.org , (717) 393-1735